Growth of $100,000: Long-Term Growth vs. Blended Benchmarks (as of 06/30/2022)

Data shown is from inception (01/01/1973 - 06/30/2022). The benchmark shown uses the 55/45 Blended Index from 01/01/1973 - 12/31/1987 and the 40/15/45 Blended Index from 01/01/1988 thereafter.

The Manning & Napier Long-Term Growth Composite is a weighted average of discretionary separately managed accounts, and may include proprietary mutual fund and collective investment trust accounts with a Long-Term Growth objective. Accounts in this composite must have a market value greater than $500,000 and tenure of at least one month under our management. Long-Term Growth is a blended investment objective that invests in equities, primarily U.S. with some non-U.S., and fixed income securities. The primary investment objective of accounts in this composite is long-term growth, and the secondary objective is preservation of capital. Equity exposure for accounts in this composite typically ranges from 30% to 80% with situational adjustments within this range at our discretion. This composite includes separately managed accounts that may have a portion of their assets invested in proprietary asset class mutual funds, which may be declined or may not be permitted through the selection of some custodial programs. Prior to 01/01/1986, the composite was based on the Blended Objectives Composite consisting of employee benefit accounts with a blended investment objective, including Long-Term Growth accounts. Prior to 01/01/2009, proprietary mutual fund and collective investment trust accounts with a Long-Term Growth objective were excluded from the composite. Fees used for calculations are firmwide rates prior to 2001 and specific to this composite for 2001 onward.
