The Trustees welcomed Barry Bryant of Dahab Associates to the meeting. Mr. Bryant reported the economy has stabilized and unemployment rate is at 4%. He advised that the final 2nd quarter portfolio performance data is not available yet; however, he was able to provide preliminary data. The total return for the second quarter is projected to be 2.2% gross, with the Fund realizing returns for the fiscal year through June 30, 2024 of 4.2%, and the total gross market value as of June 30, 2024 is $2,770,885.

Mr. Bryant then went through the IPS with the Trustees, discussing each section in detail and answering questions from the Trustees. Once Manning & Napier provides the final version of the IPS, it will be circulated to all Trustees for review and approval.

Mr. Bryant reported the Fund is currently awaiting approximately $39 million in Special Financial Assistance (SFA) Funding and currently has approximately $2 million in legacy assets for a total of approximately $41 million to be invested in accordance with the IPS and the laws and rules governing the investment of SFA Funding.

Re: Printing Local 72 Industry Pension Fund
Withdrawal Liability Pursuant to 29 CFR Section 4219.16
MCPC, Inc. (formerly known as McArdle Printing)

Dear Mr. Szewczyk:

At the request of Bloomberg Industry Group (the Company), I have been asked to reach out to you in your capacity as counsel for the Printing Local 72 Industry Pension Fund (the Fund) regarding the above withdrawal liability. Previously, there had been some discussion between the Company and the Fund about the possibility of resolving the withdrawal liability for a lump sum payment but those discussions were suspended. This letter is intended as a re-opening of those negotiations toward possible resolution of the entirety of the liability assessed against the Company, provided the Fund is amenable to such discussions.

If I should be directing this inquiry to someone else, please do let me know. Otherwise, please let me know if the Fund is open to settlement discussions and, if possible, what parameters might be considered should we determine to submit a proposal on behalf of the Company.

I look forward to your response and to working with you to resolve this matter. Thank you for your attention this inquiry.

Very truly yours,

Keith R. McMurdy, Esq.
